Hymn: Summoned by the God who made us

by Rachel Hewitt from St Michael's. The Tune is on the back page of the service booklet.

I Summoned by the God who made us
rich in our diversity,
gathered in the name of Jesus
richer still in unity:
let us bring the gifts that differ
and, in splendid, varied ways,
sing a new church into being
one in faith and love and praise.

2 Radiant risen from the water,
robed in holiness and light,
male and female in God's image,
male and female God's delight:
let us bring the gifts that differ
and, in splendid, varied ways,
sing a new church into being
one in faith and love and praise.

3 Trust the goodness of creation;
trust the spirit strong within,
dare to dream the vision promised,
sprung from seed of what has been:
let us bring the gifts that differ
and, in splendid, varied ways,
sing a new church into being
one in faith and love and praise.

4 Bring the hopes of every nation;
bring the art of every race.
Weave a song of peace and justice;
let it sound through time and space.
Let us bring the gifts that differ
and, in splendid, varied ways,
sing a new church into being
one in faith and love and praise.

5 Draw together at one table,
all the human family:
shape a circle ever wider,
and a people ever free.
Let us bring the gifts that differ
and, in splendid, varied ways,
sing a new church into being
one in faith and love and praise.

Sermon: followed by silent reflection

Preacher: The Revd Tim Norwood: National Ecumenical Officer for The Church of England

* Hymn: God has called us to a journey Tune: R &S 663 Hyfrydol

God has called us to a journey,
to a never ending quest;
always seeking new horizons,
always searching for the best.
Young and old, it makes no difference,
still the journey's just begun,
keep us looking to the future,
never dream the race is run.

Let the search for truth continue,
may its flame for ever burn -
what we know is only partial,
there is more we need to learn.
Do not fear what seems to challenge,
do not cling to what is dead.
Let the voice of God disturb you -
By the way of Christ be led.

Faith must always be evolving,
if it is to stay alive.
Never viewed as our possession,
nor a place where we arrive.
God has called us to a journey,
always asking one step more.
Trust in him and keep believing,
that he holds the best in store. Nick Fawcett CCL257120

THE COMMUNION

led by The Revd Ian Green and The Revd Debbie Oades

Hymn: A body made of many parts Tune R&S 552: Dominus Regit Me

I. A body made of many parts,
diverse, yet all together,
where each is valued, each required,
and all are one forever.

2. Christ's Church is called, by grace, to live
united as one being,
where each must play their special part,
like walking, breathing, seeing.

3. However slight I judge my worth compared with those around me,
I cannot say, 'I don't belong'
for Christ himself has found me.

4. Nor can I sneer and set at nought
the value of another;
we all are needed as we are
distinct, yet sister, brother.

5. So let us grow in shared respect,
develop mutual caring,
with love the gift that's prized the most
'til each and all are sharing.

6. A body made of many parts,
diverse, yet all together,
where each is valued, each required,
and all are one forever.

* Prayer of Dedication

The Prayer of Thanksgiving

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise,

Living God, we give you thanks for you created us and gave us life. Yours is the world and all its resources; given for all to share. The whole creation combines to sing and praise: we join our voices in the resounding song:

Holy, holy, holy,

My heart, my heart adores you!

My heart is glad to say the words:

You are holy, Lord.

Merciful God, we thank you that, when we rebel against your love and bind ourselves in chains of our making, you do not abandon us. In Jesus Christ you have set us free. We thank you for his coming, for his willingness to die for the love of us; a love that will not let us go, and we praise you for his glorious resurrection to new life with you.

In God's name is coming,

The One whom we call blessed.

Hosanna in the highest,

Praise and thanks to God.

We thank you that on the night he was betrayed he took bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and said: “This is my body; it is for you”. And the same way after supper he took the cup, gave thanks and said: “This is the new covenant in my blood, Do this in remembrance of me.” So, here and now we obey his command as we keep the feast and call to mind his death, resurrection and his burgeoning Kingdom among us.

You alone are holy,
And you alone are Lord,
And you alone are the most high,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

We thank you gracious God that you have called us to be your people, made one by your Spirit, and we rejoice to offer this sacrifice of praise. Send that same Spirit upon us now that as we eat and drink together, we may be made ready to live for you and to do what you ask of us today and every day. We bring this prayer through Christ our Lord.

Sharing of the bread and wine

The bread and wine are brought to the congregation. Once all have been served, we eat and drink together.

Post Communion Prayer

God of Compassion,
You have nourished us with the bread of life
and the wine of hope.
Send us out now with a new song in our heart
in the power of your Spirit. Amen

 Hymn 602: Forth in the peace of Christ we go Tune: R & S 521 Angels' Song

Dismissal and Blessing with sung Amen All Standing

Morning Tea and Coffee is served in the Church Hall after the service
